TECHNOVISION 2026

MODEL PRESENTATION

OFFICIAL EVENT RULEBOOK

Eligibility • Project Standards • Presentation • Venue Conduct

This rulebook outlines the participation requirements, project standards, presentation procedure, and conduct expected from all teams participating in the Model Presentation event under Technovision, organized by Technical Club FLUX at SATI Vidisha. All participants are expected to read and follow these rules.

1. PARTICIPATION RULES

1. Students from schools and colleges are eligible to participate.

2. Each team must consist of a minimum of 2 members and a maximum of 4 members.

2. PROJECT REQUIREMENTS

1. The project must be either a hardware-based working model or a science-based project.

2. The project must be safe to operate and must demonstrate a valid technical or scientific concept.

3. The project must be original. Copied projects or commercially available, ready-made projects may lead to disqualification.

4. The use of dangerous materials, hazardous chemicals, explosives, or high-risk components is strictly prohibited.

3. PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

1. Each team will be allotted a maximum of 10 minutes for the model presentation, explanation, and demonstration.

2. Teams must report to the venue at least 30 minutes before their allotted presentation time.

3. Late arrival may result in disqualification or reduced evaluation time, at the discretion of the organizers.

4. Teams must bring all materials, power supplies, and accessories required to set up and demonstrate their models.

4. VENUE RULES & DISCIPLINE

1. Participants are expected to maintain proper decorum, discipline, and cleanliness at the venue.

2. Violent behavior or unprofessional conduct toward organizers or other participants will result in immediate disqualification and removal from the venue.

3. The organizing committee reserves the right to modify the event schedule or structure if required.

IMPORTANT

By participating in Model Presentation, each team agrees to comply with the rules stated in this rulebook and follow instructions issued by the organizing committee.
